

Art and Poems by E.E

Performed at London PLUS Event on the Domestic Abuse Act

26th May 2021

E.E

Different Faces

Wogohen nokhtalefa
Some faces offer us help
Some of them are smiling
Some of them are staring
Some of them are angry
Even if they offer help

We have equal rights as human beings
Faces think they are superior to us
Just because they offer help
I don't need your help
I need your smile
I need your kindness
Smile from your heart
It will show in your eyes

Lips try to teach us something
I am not a child
I love to learn, but as an adult
I am a teacher
The adult mind is completely Different to the child's

I am standing at the top
I am a survivor
Through lots of difficulty

I am the tree rooted in earth
looking to the sky
Giving fruit to others
Wogohen nokhtalefa

Our Heart's desire

Your heart and my heart over there
My heart and your heart over here
Kalbok wa kalby honak
Kalby wa kalbok Hona

We hug each other
As a blossom flowers in the tree
Positive energy beats together
Are we all in the same boat?
Are we nine hearts?
six hearts?
or three?

Your heart and my heart over there
My heart and your heart over here
Kalbok wa kalby honak
Kalby wa kalbok Hona

We are all connected to a heart
Our longing hearts beat to see our family again
Your heart pulses for your loved ones
Aches long-longing
through different seasons

Your heart and my heart over there
My heart and your heart over here
Kalbok wa kalby honak
Kalby wa kalbok Hona

Whether the sea is enraged
Or calm
We are together
What brings us together?
Could be Life

Our Heart's desire (continued)

Whether the sea is enraged
Or calm

We are together

What brings us together?

Could be Life

writing, singing, eating, painting, travelling, visiting, working, playing, migrating

Could be anything

But it is our energetic heart

That sails us to our heart's desire

Your heart and my heart over there

My heart and your heart over here

Kalbok wa kalby honak

Kalby wa kalbok Hona

