

Safeguarding Adults Quiz Answers

1	Rigid routines and regimes (in a care home, for example) are an example of organisational abuse.	True	False
2	Current statutory guidance on dealing with the abuse of vulnerable adults which was published in 2000 is called “No Secrets”. (Care Act)	True	False
3	For the purposes of safeguarding, a “vulnerable adult” (or “adult at risk”) is someone who is at least 18 years old.	True	False
4	The primary responsibility for safeguarding arrangements in any area lies with the NHS. (the LA)	True	False
5	“Psychological” abuse is also sometimes called “emotional abuse”.	True	False
6	If you have a Lasting Power of Attorney you cannot financially abuse someone	True	False
7	There are seven broad categories of abuse in adult safeguarding. (Now 10)	True	False
8	Section 43 of the Mental Capacity Act 2005 makes it an offence to “ill treat or wilfully neglect an individual who lacks capacity”.	True	False
9	All staff who are found guilty of abusing adults in their care will automatically be barred from working in care and support.	True	False
10	The first key stage of a Safeguarding process is usually called “raising an alert”.	True	False